

Saakalya Official Launch Event

After many months of hard work and toil we finally had the pleasure of revealing Saakalya at our Official Launch Party!

9th December the Saakalya Team invited everyone that had supported us throughout the company's conception right through to fruition.

The evening took place at Cabaleiro Atelier & Art School where our gracious host Patricia Cabaleiro teaches incredible abstract expression. Alongside and providing exquisite canapés, inspired by Balinese delicacies and handmade from fresh natural ingredients was Diana von Cranach from Puri Ganesha Villas Bali who was a star on the day and we couldn't be more thankful to them both. Patricia and Diana will be working with our guests on unique Art and Culinary themed trips respectively and it was wonderful having them beside us as we unveiled Saakalya.

See travel.saakalya.com for more info on our upcoming trips!

Special thanks also to our partners, Nakd Water for providing our guests pure artesian water from New Zealand and Szigetzi who supplied pale salmon pink bubbles from Austria.

We are so appreciative of everyone who was able to make it for the evening and wished us well, it means the world to us to see so many of you supporting Saakalya and we can't wait to share our future successes with you!

Introducing...

Over the last couple of weeks we've teamed up with Saint Nicholas himself to bring you a little festive challenge. He's been working hard to deliver the Saakalya Collection to homes all around the world. If you haven't already done your Christmas shopping then the Saakalya Collection provides amazing gifts for your loved ones!

Santa's workshop isn't always the most organised space though. There are two of our products hidden in this photo, can you spot them?

(Hint) You might need to head over to www.saakalya.com for their names.

Jump onto our Facebook page and leave us a note starting with SANTA'S WORKSHOP and the name of the product you've spotted for the chance to win an exclusive Christmas gift!

Happy hunting and Merry Christmas!

Meet Saakalya

Of course Christmas is here and the festive spirit is alive as well at the Saakalya Office. The Christmas music is pouring out of the speakers in a growing tide of merriment. The Santa hats aren't being worn just yet, but it's only a matter of time...

What a year it's been! We have achieved so much in such a short space of time and look forward to sharing more with you in the future. Here's to a 2015 full of promise and opportunity.

To all our partners, clients, customers, guests, friends and family we wish you Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!
